NEW MOVE AGAINST RENT PROFITEERS

NEW MOVE TO CHECK RENT

Special Committee of Legislature Appointed to Consider Bills Aimed at Profitiering

A special committee of five members of the Joint Judiciary Committee of the Legislature was today appointed to consider all the bills aimed to stop rent profiteering, including the Hays bill introduced by the Boston American Tenants' League.

The special committee will act under the direct instruction of the main committee to draft a comprehensive bill to check rent profiteering.

Representative Hays himself is a member of the special committee. The other members are Senator Augustus P. Loring of Beverly, Senator Charles F. Johnson of Boston, Representative Joseph B. Cullen of Boston, Representative James J. Moynihan, both of Boston.

The special committee will report its bill directly to the main committee.

In addition to the Hays bill, the committee has before it among others, the Haysbill in which the renter is to be limited to the amount of the value of the property, the Haysbill to punish landlords who fail to heat the tenements and apartments in the winter, and the Cullen bill to restrict landlords from ejecting their tenants.

EXPECT COAL TO REACH $16

Dorchester Dealer Asks This Price for City's Winter Supply

Boston coal dealers expect coal to go to $16 a ton and possibly higher this winter.

This price was asked of the city of Boston for anthracite coal by D. Doherty, a Dorchester dealer, in submitting a bid for the city's winter supply of coal. Other dealers refused to submit any bid, but stated they would give the city 25 cents per ton from the price at the time of delivery.

Today's price on anthracite is $15.80 a ton.

Labor troubles at the coal mines and the proximity of freight rates were given by the dealers as reasons for their refusal to bid. A contract was awarded for 10,000 tons of soft coal at $15.40 per ton, 10 cents under the market price, but now bids are to be asked for the remaining 50,000 tons needed for public buildings.

SOX-YANKEES GAME HELD UP BY RAIN

CHARGE RICH SCHEME TO ESCAPE TAXES UNDER WAR BONUS LAW

Proposed Gross Sales Tax First Move of Nation's Great Business Interests

Washington, April 21.—The fate of bonus legislation for executive men hangs on the decision of a caucus of House Republican members, to be held tomorrow night. Insurgency has developed in Republican ranks over the form of bonds to be granted and the character of special taxes necessary to raise the money.

Majority leaders favor raising the money by levying gross sales tax on retailers, or "turn over," as well as on the final sale.

The charge is made that the proposed gross sales tax is the first move in big business to wipe out the excess on big incomes and excess profits tax.

Otto Kahn, New York financier, expressed the belief that the proposed sales tax would be sufficient to eliminate the excess on big incomes and excess profits tax.

Republican leaders say, however, that should a gross sales tax be adopted in the caucus it will be in other features it might reach $100,000,000, it is estimated.

It is estimated that a gross sales tax of one-half of one per cent. would net slightly over $1,000,000,000 and one per cent. $2,000,000,000.

Treasury experts have agreed with House financial leaders that it is not practicable at present to supplant the existing heavy excess profits and income tax laws, with any other form of direct tax or to increase the normal income tax, because of the burden it would place on persons of small means.

The treasury revenue of over $150,000,000, derived from the excess and income tax, is necessary to the recovery of the treasury, it is claimed.

Republican insurgents led by Representative Royal Copeland, South Dakota; Morgan, Chicago, and Clegg, New York, are opposed to the gross sales tax on the ground that it is a move to wipe out the excess on big incomes and excess profits tax.

They are urging a special tax on corporations to cover the cost of the bonus.

Sensational Charges Made in Connection With Voting Machine Co. Bankruptcy Case

Members of the Walworth Company, which is using the machine, have been told over the use of the voting machine, and news that the company had gone into the bankruptcy court caused a big stir among citizens of the Walworth City, for much of the stock was sold there.

Many of the employees of the Walworth Company and the Maita Automobile Company bought stock in the company.

Several cases have been filed in Superior Court by former stock holders against the company, charging breach of contract in connection with the wholesale distribution of stock.

The board of directors state in the petition that "certain apparently illegal dispositions of assets occurring before 1917" have been noted, and they say that they are unable to account for the sale of a large part of the machinery.

According to the petition, the company is controlled at $1,000,000, divided into 3,000,000 shares of 10 per cent. value.

Continuing, the petition says: "Under a plan restricting the sale of stock to any one person in a comparatively small number, the company has been able to accumulate a large sum of money, which it has used for the purchase of real estate, and for the payment of dividends to its stockholders."

Officers for the sale of stock are maintained in different parts of the United States, in the following cities: Portland, Me.; Boston, Mass.; New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Pa.; St. Louis, Mo.; Chicago, Ill.; San Francisco, Cal.; and Los Angeles, Cal.

The stock was sold on the installment plan, on such per cent. generally in multiples of eight parts of fifty per cent. shares, such as 10 shares ($50), 20 and 40 shares, 100 shares being the maximum allowed to be sold to any one stockholder; so that no stockholder, except Maita and Maita's company, could own more than a small fraction of the total stock, with the result that the stockholders were widely scattered and unable to combine to protect their interests.

"The petitioners complete their payment by forfeiting the payments made, these forfeited installments amounting to approximately $200,000, most, if not all, of which, as deposit is informed and believed, did not get to the company's treasury at all. In this way, the company's stockholders eventually become stockholders by completing their own payments."

Maita recently filed a petition in Superior Court asking that the management of the company be restrained from selling his property. Shortly after this was filed, the petition in bankruptcy was filed. The creditors are to be given a hearing.

Winged Feet Latest Parisian Fad

New York, April 21.—Winged feet are now being displayed by ultra-fashionable Paris women on the boulevards. It was reported here today by Mme. Jeanne Kischbaum, of Paris, as she embarked from the French liner La Touraine. The imitators of Mercury adorn their dainty shoes with birds' wings.

"The wings go out to starboard on the starboard leg, and they just cut out to port on the port side," explained one of the officers of the La Touraine, who said he had seen some of them. "That is how they can walk or run without tripping," he added. "But they look oh so funny. I like the feathers better on the hat."

PROFITS SHARED WITH

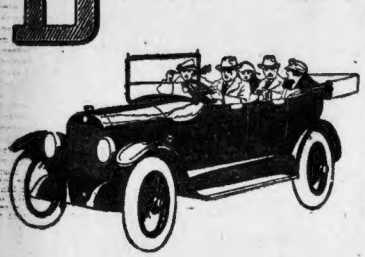

APPROXIMATE WORKERS

There is no objection at all to the fact that the workers of the American Automobile Company, who have been working out a way for them to earn a share of the profits of the company, are now being paid a share of the profits of the company, which has been a good deal of interest in the industry.

DORT

Quality Goes Clear Through

The noticeable national tendency to single out the Dord as an especially desirable car to own is simply the result of a process of sound reasoning.

Buyers are aware that the Dord does have a very simple and accessible design.

They know that it needs service attention but rarely, and that argues both efficiency and thrift.

They know that the Dord has won a name for being a long-lived car.

These facts lead unerringly to the logical conclusion that the Dord is a distinctly valuable automobile investment.

'SAFETY FIRST' CUTS MISHAPS

W. H. Gleason, Dord Dealer, Says Ratio of Auto Accidents Growing Less

Automobile accidents continue to get on the front pages of the newspapers, but the fact remains that the ratio of these mishaps to the number of cars and pedestrians grows less each year.

By this scheme, employees receive 25 per cent. of the net profits for the year, after the amount allowed by the government as interest on invested capital is deducted. The employees receive their dividends just as the stockholders do, three at the end of the year.

TIRE SHORTAGE PREDICTED

N. P. James of Miller Co. Warns of Supply Big Demand for This Brand

In speaking of the tire situation, with reference to the shortage of fabric and the attendant shortage of tires, N. P. James of the Miller Rubber Company of New England, says:

"There is bound to be a shortage of tires this year, due to the fact that the estimated demand will be close to 60,000,000 tires, and it is estimated that the supply of the country cannot meet this demand."

The Miller Rubber Company, while increasing its output 25 per cent., has contracted for enough fabric to take care of this enormous increase of business.

The shortage of New England has had to make carloads of express shipments to meet requirements. The company is having for the factory to secure enough carloads to take care of the shortage of shipments during the last two weeks.

The Miller Company is going to give service to all of its dealers in the New England area to keep every tire sold.

5 CITIES ADOPT NAME 3 FOR U. S. SUNDAY SPORTS TENNIS TEAM

Cambridge, Medford, Beverly, Johnston, Williams and Tilden Springfield and Chicopee
Favor Measure

Five cities and two towns in the Bay State accepted the Sunday sports team while Quincy voted against it. These voting in favor were Cambridge, Medford, Beverly, Springfield, Tilden and Chicopee. The Quincy City Council refused to accept the measure, the argument against its adoption being that it might be left to a similar referendum at the city election.

There was no opposition in Beverly and the Board of Aldermen accepted the bill. It is believed that Mayor McPherson will sign the act.

If a Tire Can Outrun Millers

Every maker has some freak tires. And the great records are made by oversize tires run under rare conditions.

But require that Miller outrun in tire on the opposite rear wheel.

There are many Miller dealers with large sales who have never had a Miller Tire returned.

Tire mileage has been vastly increased in late years.

In our factory tests we average 15,000 miles on Miller Cords. And these are rear-wheel tests made under extreme conditions.

Many Miller users report from 20,000 to 25,000 miles. And many, we know, get but 10,000 miles. So much depends on size, load, road and care.

But compare the mileage. See which tire gives greatest service under like conditions, then adopt that tire.

That's what large tire users do. And Miller's are used exclusively today by countless users who have made such tests.

When you buy a new car insist on Miller Tires. Twenty car makers now supply them and there is no extra charge.

Or, if you test four Millers, require uniform mileage.

Require that tread outlast the balance of the tire.

Miller Tires will win you if you judge them in that way. And you owe it to yourself.
